

Mark Brumwell

Mark is Head of the Environmental Law Group at Dundas & Wilson. He is Chair, a Council Member and Executive Committee Member of UKELA. Mark is recognised as a leading practitioner in environmental law in both Chambers and Legal 500 directories. In addition to his environment practice, Mark also has wide ranging experience of complementary areas of public law including compulsory purchase, town and country planning, highways and health and safety.

Richard Macrory Hon. QC

Richard Macrory is a barrister at Brick Court Chambers and Professor of Environmental Law at University College London, where he directs the Centre for Law and the Environment and the Carbon capture Legal Programme. For many years he was a Member of the Royal Commission on Environmental Pollution, and he was a Board Member of the Environment Agency between 1999 and 2004. Richard was the first chairman of UKELA.

Andrew Lee

Andrew Lee is Director of Strategy and Partnerships at the South Downs National Park Authority. After studying Environmental Biology at the University College of Wales Aberystwyth, Andrew started work at the Sussex Wildlife Trust, becoming Director after five years. He then moved to the World Wildlife Fund where he worked on UK Policy and Campaigning before becoming Chief Executive of the Sustainable Development Commission.

Andrew has a strong interest in landscape scale biodiversity and sustainable development and is a trustee of charity Global Action Plan (GAP) which works with business and communities to reduce carbon emissions and encourage more sustainable behaviour.